(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other enactment, no suit against any member of the Board or the Commandant-General or any other officer or employee of the Corps for any act done in pursuance or execution of this Act or any other enactment or law, or of any public duty or authority or in respect of any alleged neglect or default in the execution of this Act or any other enactment or law, duty or authority, shall lie or be instituted in any court unless it is commenced-

(a) within three months after the act, neglect or default complained of; or

(b) in the case of a continuation of damage or injury, within six months after the ceasing thereof.

(3) No suit shall be commenced against a member of the Board or the Commander-General or any other officer or employee of the Corps before the expiration of a period of one month after written notice of intention to commence the suit shall have been served on the Corps by the intending plaintiff or his agent.

(4) The notice referred to in subsection (3) of this section shall clearly and explicitly state-

(a) the cause of action;

(b) the particulars of claim;

(c) the name and place of abode of the intending plaintiff; and

(d) the relief which the plaintiff claims.

21. Service of documents

A notice, summons or other document required or authorised to be served on the Corps under the provisions of this Act or any other enactment or law may be served by delivering it to the Commandant-General or by sending it by registered post and addressed to the Commandant-General at the principal office of the Corps.

22. Restriction on execution against property of the Corps
In any action or suit against the Corps, no execution or attachment of process in the nature thereof shall be issued against the Corps unless a notice of not less than three months of the intention to execute or attach has been given to the Corps.

Any sum of money, which may, by the judgment of any court, be awarded against the Corps shall, subject to any directions given by the Court where notice of appeal against the judgment has been given, be paid from the general reserve fund of the Corps.

23. Indemnity of officers

A member of the Board or the Commandant-General or any officer or employee of the Corps shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Corps against any liability incurred by him in defending any proceeding, whether civil or criminal, if the proceeding is brought against him in his capacity as a member, Commandant-General, officer or other employee of the Corps.

24. Secrecy

(1) A member of the Board or the Commandant-General or any other officer or employee of the Corps shall-

(a) not, for his personal gain, make use of any information which has come to his knowledge in the exercise of his powers or is obtained by him in the ordinary course of his duty as a member of the Board as the Commandant-General, officer or employee of the Corps;

(b) treat as confidential any information which has come to his knowledge in the exercise of his powers or is obtained by him in the performance of his duties under this Act; or

(c) not disclose any information referred to under paragraph (b) of this subsection except when required to do so by any court or in such other circumstances as may be prescribed by the Board, from time to time.

(2) A person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) of this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than ₦20,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years.

25. Power to obtain information

(1) For the purpose of carrying out the functions conferred on the Corps under this Act, the Commandant-General or any other officer or employee of the Corps authorised in that behalf-shall have a right of access to all the records of any person or authority affected by this Act for the specific purpose of discharging his duties under this Act; and

(b) may by notice in writing served on any person or premises, require that person or authority to furnish information on such matters as may be specified in notice.

(2) The person or authority served with the notice under subsection (1) shall furnish information as required under subsection (1) of this section and comply with the notice within a reasonable time.

26. Dissolution of the existing Security and Civil Defence Corps and savings

(1) The body known as the Security Civil Defence Corps (in this section referred to as the "Dissolved Corps") existing before the commencement of this Act is dissolved.

(2) Accordingly, there shall be vested in the Corps immediately at the commencement of this Act and without further assurance, all assets funds, resources and other movable or immovable property which immediately before the commencement of this Act were in the Dissolved Corps.

(3) As from the commencement of this Act-

(a) all rights, interests, obligations and liabilities of the Dissolved Corps existing immediately before the commencement of this Act under any contract or instrument, or at law or in equity, shall by virtue of this Act be assigned to and vested in the Corps;

(b) any contract or instrument as mentioned in paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be of the same force and effect against or in favour of the Corps and shall be enforceable as fully and effectively as if, instead of the Dissolved Corps, the Corps had been named therein or had been a party thereto; and

(c) the Corps shall be subject to all obligations and liabilities to which the Dissolved Corps was subject immediately before the commencement of this Act, and all other persons shall, as from the commencement of this Act have the same rights, power and remedies against the Corps as they had against the Dissolved Corps immediately before the commencement of this Act.

(4) A proceeding or cause of action pending or existing immediately before the commencement of this Act by or against the Dissolved Corps in respect of any right, interest, obligations or liability of the Dissolved Corps may be commenced, continued or enforced by or against the Corps as if this Act has not been made.
(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act, but subject to such directions as may be issued by the Corps, a person who immediately before the commencement of this Act was a volunteer or regular member of or held office in the Dissolved Corps shall be deemed to have been transferred to the Corps on terms and conditions not less favourable than those obtaining immediately before the commencement of this Act, and service in the Dissolved Corps shall be deemed to be service in the Corps for purposes of pension.

(6) All regular officers of the Corps before dissolution shall retain their ranks and positions immediately after this Act takes effect.

27. Directives by the Minister, etc.

(1) The Minister may give to the Corps or the Commandant-General such directives-

(a) of a general nature or relating generally to matters of policy with regard to the exercise of its functions; or

(b) with respect to the maintenance and securing of public safety and order, as he may consider necessary, and the Corps or the Commandant-General shall comply with the directives or cause them to be complied with.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, a Governor of a State may give to a State Commandant such directives with respect to the maintenance and securing of public safety and order in the State as he may consider necessary and it shall be the duty of the State Commandant to comply with the directives or cause them to be complied with.

28. Regulations

The Corps may, with the approval of the Minister, make such regulations as in its opinion are necessary or expedient for giving full effects to the provisions of this Act and for the due administration of its provisions.

29. Interpretation
